

FOR all those feeling fear, anger and despair from corrupt wars, the loss of our civil liberties and assaults on our environment, GLOBAL SENSE unites spirituality and politics to empower the readers with a hopeful new vision of a free society governed by a sense of our global interactivity. Following Paine's structure and logic in Common Sense, Freed challenges the ancient legacies of male rule and authority addiction, instead advocating mindful self rule and personal democracy. He affirms practical idealism: We can change the world by changing ourselves.

Judah Freed is a media and politics journalist, a member of the American Society of Journalists and Authors, past president of the Colorado Authors League, and a member of the Colorado Independent Publishers Assn. He voices three decades of research and thought in Global Sense.
